Improvements to Interstate 530 Exit Ramps Will Require Temporary Closures in Pine Bluff

JEFFERSON COUNTY (7-24) – Improvements to Interstate 530 Exit Ramps in Pine Bluff will require temporary closures, according to Arkansas Department of Transportation (ARDOT) officials.

Weather permitting, crews will put the following lane closures in place and detours will be utilized to help route traffic:

- I-530 Southbound Exit Ramp to Harding Avenue (Exit Ramp 46) will be closed starting Sunday, July 26 to allow crews to complete repair work on the bridge approach. This closure is expected to last approximately one week.
- I-530 Southbound Exit Ramp to S. Olive Street (Exit Ramp 43) will be closed starting Tuesday, July 28 to allow crews to remove and replace the concrete pavement on the exit ramp. This closure is expected to last approximately two weeks.

Traffic will be controlled by traffic cones and signage. Drivers should exercise caution when approaching and traveling through all highway work zones.
